Aims and Scope

The JBI Library of Systematic Reviews is a fully refereed library that publishes systematic reviews of literature. These reviews may be of quantitative or qualitative research data, text and/or opinion, relate to economic data or combinations of the above.

The JBI Library of Systematic Reviews publishes systematic reviews undertaken by the Joanna Briggs Institute and its international collaborating centres and groups. However there is facility within the library for publication of systematic reviews undertaken by authors unrelated to the Joanna Briggs Institute.

Submissions may be made by uploading information at: www.joannabriggs.edu.au/pubs/systematic_reviews.php

The Joanna Briggs Institute

The Joanna Briggs Institute is a research institute based in Australia. Health researchers and clinicians around the world collaborate with the Institute as collaborating centres, synthesis and utilisation groups and as members of and subscribers to the Institute's publications and resources. For more information about the institute and its collaboration, please visit the institute website at: www.joannabriggs.edu.au
